CONGRESSION CHATTER.

HOW IT WILL BE IN NOVEMBER.

It is said that 3,000 Democrats attended a barbecue in Christian county the other day, where the Hon. James A. McKenzie opened his campaign for Congress. The tables were arranged to make the initials of the distinguished candidate, and over fifty carcasses were laid upon them. It is our impression that the tables will be arranged this way in November, with a goodly number of carcasses laid upon them.—Paducah News.

IT IS ALREADY OUT.

The mouse in the meal tub, mentioned by the Hopkinsville South Kentuckian, came very near escaping the other day, when a lengthy and not very interesting correspondence between McKenzie and Col. Syvert, aent the express of a choice between them in Christian county, was sent to an Owensboro paper for publication, and followed by a telegram on the same subject. Neither of the Hopkinsville papers of the same date printed the correspondence, or any reference to it, though it was interesting only to Christian county people. Perhaps this was because it was too farcical to serve even as a buncome—for which it was undoubtedly intended—in a community where both of the gentlemen are so well known. Now why, except for buncome, were these letters, which were not considered worthy of notice by the Hopkinsville editors, posted off to an extreme end of the district to be printed in a paper which has no circulation in Christian county? The mouse is surely gnawing out—Owensboro Messenger.

STRONG FOR QUININE JIM.

We have a citizen in our town by the name of Heury Bitterback, who says that he will vote for the Hon. James A. McKenzie. In spite of high and high water, from the fact, he says, that McKenzie has made the best Congressman since the days of Lynn Boyd. He says that before the quinine bill was passed he had to pay from $2.50 to $4.50 per ounce for quinine; now he can get it for 80 and 85 cents per ounce at retail, and every family living in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys should be allowed to vote for him.—Ullontown Co., Henderson.
